ELLIOT STOCK'S NEW LIST.

Tastefully printed on antique paper, in 8vo size, and appropriately bound, price 7s. 6d.

MEDIEVAL LORE:

AN EPITOME of the SCIENCE, GEOGRAPHY, ANIMAL and PLANT FOLKLORE, and MYTH of the MIDDLE AGE. Being CLASSIFIED GLEANINGS from the ENCYCLOPÆDIA of BARTHOLOMEW ANGLICUS on the "PROPERTIES OF THINGS." Edited by ROBERT STEELE. With a Preface by WILLIAM MORRIS, Author of "The Earthly Paradise," etc.

"Illustrates one of the best methods of making us realise the life and thought of a long-past epoch. The extracts given are delightful. Even ordinary readers will find a quaint charm in the way legend, folk-lore, and actual knowledge are mixed up in Bartholomew's descriptions."—Bookman.

NEW VOLUME OF THE "BOOK-LOVER'S LIBRARY."

In fcap. 8vo, tastefully printed on antique paper, and bound in olive cloth, gilt lettered, price 4s. 6d.; hand-made paper, Roxburgh binding, 7s. 6d.; Large Paper Copies, 21s. net.

LITERARY BLUNDERS:

A CHAPTER IN THE "HISTORY OF HUMAN ERROR." By HENRY B. WHEATLEY, F.S.A., Author of "How to Form a Library," "Dedications of Books," etc.

In the present volume of the "Book-lover's Library" Mr. Wheatley has brought together an interesting collection of instances of literary blundering, mostly humorous, gleaned from many fields and different times. These are classified under various appropriate subjects, interesting to the bibliophile, and connected by a running thread of comment and explanation.

"SYLVANUS URBAN" ON THE COUNTIES OF ENGLAND.

Tastefully printed on antique paper, and bound in cloth, price 7s. 6d. each; hand-made paper, Roxburgh, 10s. 6d. net; Large Paper (50 only), 21s. net. The Roxburgh and Large Paper Editions of this Work are only sold in Sets.

Being the New Volume of the

GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE LIBRARY

IN THE

TOPOGRAPHICAL SERIES.

Edited by G. LAURENCE GOMME, F.S.A.

This section of "The Gentleman's Magazine Library" is particularly interesting as giving an accurate record of the Principal Seats of the Local Gentry, the Birthplaces of Noted Inhabitants, etc., and other information which cannot be found elsewhere, and which is invaluable to the Local Historian, the Genealogist, and the Student of our Country's Progress.

"'Sylvanus Urban' bequeathed to us a well-nigh inexhaustible mine."—Graphic.

"The editor has performed his work with accuracy and discretion, while the method of classification is excellent."—Saturday Review.

"Not a dull line is there in the work, and the whole constitutes pleasant and edifying reading."—Notes and Queries.

 Complete Catalogue, comprising upwards of 3,000 different Works, post free on application.

IMPORTANT ADDITION TO THE MINERVA LIBRARY.

Messrs. WARD, LOCK, BOWDEN & CO. beg to announce that they have just issued, price 2s., a New and Attractive Edition of the Popular Work, LAVENGRO: The Scholar, the Priest, the Gipsy. By GEORGE BORROW, Author of "The Bible in Spain," etc. With a specially-written and important Introduction, containing Personal Reminiscences and a Criticism, by THEODORE WATTS. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, with either cut or uncut edges, 2s.

This new edition of George Borrow's remarkable work "Lavengro" contains features not to be found in any other issue. First and foremost is a lengthy and specially-written introduction by Mr. Theodore Watts, to which exceptional interest attaches, not only on account of Mr. Watts's eminence as poet and critic, and from his being a recognised authority upon gipsy folk-lore and language, but because he was Borrow's intimate friend, and speaks from close and personal knowledge. His introduction may be described as a criticism and a reminiscence, and throws a new light upon many perplexing and hitherto unexplained passages. This new edition of "Lavengro" also contains two engravings showing Borrow's home at Oulton (now pulled down) as well as the summer-house where he worked.

POPULAR THREE-AND-SIXPENNY NOVELS.

Crown 8vo, neatly bound, cloth gilt.

A STUDY IN SCARLET. By A. CONAN DOYLE, Author of "Micah Clarke," "The Sign of Four," "The White Company," etc. With 40 Illustrations by George Hutchinson, 3s. 6d.

The First, Second, and Third Editions immediately exhausted.

I FORBID THE BANNS.

By FRANKFORT MOORE.

IN 3 VOLS.

The Athenæum says: "So racy and brilliant a novel. . . . . At times there are positive flashes of wit. Most of the people interest one. . . . . The women are, perhaps, even more cleverly done than the male characters."

The Literary World says: "There is no question at all that 'I Forbid the Banns' is an uncommonly clever book. The subject chosen is an audacious one, but it is treated in a masterly manner."

The World says: "Mr. Moore is to be congratulated upon the originality of his novel, and also upon the skill with which he depicts a young woman so thoroughly emancipated . . . who is yet charming."

The Daily Chronicle: "This book has given us so much genuine pleasure and amusement. . . . A book which abounds in good thing."

The Academy says: "A novel which does not contain a dull page."

[A Fourth Edition this day.
